

Devonshire Teas

On Friday, 11th April 2025, the Devonshire Tea event proved to be bustling with activity, drawing in a lively crowd eager to partake in the delightful offerings

In addition to our regular community members, a busload of eager guests arrived, adding to the day's excitement.

The bus carried a lively, giggling group of ladies from the Dowerin Companion Club, bringing an infectious sense of joy and camaraderie to the event

The shop buzzed with energy as every seat was taken, and eager patrons lined up, chatting animatedly while awaiting their turn to enjoy the delightful ambiance."

The scones emerged from the oven piping hot and irresistibly fluffy, delighting guests with their perfect texture and warmth

It was a full team effort to ensure every guest was served promptly, keeping the teas, coffee, Milo, cordial, and iced coffees flowing without a hitch.

The shop remained open well past noon, accommodating a steady stream of customers eager to join the lively gathering.”

There was a tense moment when we feared the scones might run out, adding a dash of excitement to the bustling day.

Thankfully, the crisis was swiftly averted as a fresh batch of scones emerged from the kitchen, much to everyone’s relief.

As the visitors gradually departed, the Devonshire Tea ladies were finally able to put their feet up and unwind, savoring a well-deserved moment of relaxation

Yet another triumphant Friday, marked by camaraderie and delightful moments.
