

Wyalkatchem Rodeo Weekend

Well, there's some good news and some not so good news.

Sadly, all sites within the park for the Wyalkatchem Rodeo Weekend – Friday and Saturday August 23 and 24, 2024 – are fully booked and waitlisted.

We have received an overwhelming response from people keen to stay – booking up to a year ahead – and unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate any further bookings within the park boundary at this time.

Here's the good news

However as always, there are overflow unpowered and self-contained RV and tent sites available, strictly on a 'first in' basis. Yes there are toilets but you need to be self-contained.

Due to limited space and resources, we are unable to provide any further accommodation options for campers, caravans, RV vehicles or tents.

We understand that this may be disappointing news, especially if you were looking forward to attending the Wyalkatchem Rodeo Weekend. Be advised though, that like the Dowerin Field Days, people tend to book up to a year in advance.

If you have any further questions or you'd like to book an overflow site, please act quickly. We will be more than happy to assist you in any way we can.
